

Statement from the Commission for Taxi Regulation Regarding Public Consultation

The first phase of the public consultation process on the recommendations of the Goodbody Economic Review of the Industry concluded on May 5th 2009. The Commission will now be embarking on a number of meetings nationwide with key stakeholders including industry representatives.

Following the completion of these meetings, the Commission will analyse the feedback from the entire process and will make public its conclusions in due course.

Ends